Dear Matthew Radley:

I would like to welcome you to the IRR Affiliation Program and the 4 BDE 98 HHC, 100 NORTH FOREST ROAD, BUFFALO, NY 14221.

The IRR Affiliation Program was established by the Army Reserve in direct partnership with the Human Resources Command (HRC) to provide IRR Soldiers and their Families with a local link to the Army. As a member of the IRR, you are still a Soldier, and are therefore deserving of all our efforts to assist you with issues related directly or indirectly to your military service. Our goal is to establish and maintain a line of communication with you, to provide you and your Family with information on local resources; and at your request we will serve as a conduit between you and HRC on personnel related matters.

I would also like to invite you to participate in our unit training and Family readiness events. Please understand that as an affiliated member of the IRR you are still assigned to HRC, not the 4 BDE 98 HHC, and therefore you cannot be mobilized with this unit or forced to participate in unit training. Your level of involvement is completely at your discretion. But, regardless of your decision, we ask that you please contact us to let us know you have received this Welcome Letter.

I have enclosed a copy of our training schedule for the fiscal year, our latest newsletter, and directions to the 4 BDE 98 HHC.

Your IRR Affiliation Program point of contact is James Phillips at 716633846 or JAMES.E.PHILLIPS@USAR.ARMY.MIL. We are looking forward to hearing from you and answering any questions you might have on the program and this unit.
